

climate change adaptation planning

Description

Climate Change Adaptation Planning: The process of analyzing, selecting, and prioritizing actions in response to climate change impacts. It is focused on addressing both short-term and long-term climate change impacts on human life, property, economic continuity, ecological integrity, and community function. (Adapt New South Wales and IPCC 2014 Report)

Category

1. Uncategorized

Date Created

November 10, 2021

Author

admin_gbplaybook

default watermark