

blue carbon

Description

Blue Carbon: The ability of tidal wetlands, seagrass, and mangrove habitats to sequester and store carbon dioxide and other greenhouse gases from the atmosphere, helping to mitigate the effects of climate change. (ResilientCA.org)

Category

1. Uncategorized

Date Created

November 9, 2021

Author

admin_gbplaybook

default watermark