

community-driven planning

Description

Community-driven Planning: A process where frontline community members most impacted by climate change share decision-making power with the lead government agency and help produce strategies focused on their priorities and concerns. (USDN Guide to Equitable, Community-Drive Climate Preparedness Planning, and MSC Community-Driven Climate Resilience Planning)

Category

1. Uncategorized

Date Created

November 10, 2021

Author

admin_gbplaybook

default watermark