Description

Topography: Refers to the arrangement of the natural and artificial physical features of an area such as the steepness and surface shapes of the land.