

riverine flooding

Description

Riverine flooding: When the volume of water in a waterway (creeks, rivers, or constructed channels) exceeds the waterway's capacity, it will overflow the waterway's banks. (WA Coastal Network)

Category

1. Uncategorized

Date Created

November 10, 2021

Author

admin_gbplaybook

default watermark